Mr. World.

Save a corner in your heart,

Mr. World.

Save a corner in the wood

With a woman true and good!

Mr. World.

Hear my plea!

Save a corner in your heart,

Mr. World.

Save the friends that I have won;

Let me keep 'em 'till I'm done,

Mr. World.

On this side.

Save a corner in your heart,

Mr. World.

Hear my call!

Love me always, ever true,

Gist for what I've tried to do,

Mr. World.

That is all!

Flash.

Heaven is a place where everybody will listen to you talk as long as you want to about your new baby or your new automobile. Hell is the place where the people have to listen to you.

Too many rich philosophers tell you that money doesn't make happiness, and then they go out and sandbag everybody in sight for more of the filthy lucre.

My wife always heaves a sigh of relief when she thinks it is my night down town. She doesn't have to plan dinner that day.

Never try to influence a woman by reasoning with her. Try diplomacy, instead.

Anticipated pleasure usually arrives looking like a pall bearer in disguise.

Last night I heard a barber shop loafer explain at length how "rolly-el" was played. The same man in a restaurant would order "fillit" of beef just to show how much he knew about French.

Some men delight in telling how far their wives can make the expense money go and what spendthrifts they, themselves, are. Then they let the other fellow set up the cigars after he has paid for the luncheon.

You never have to ask a Chicago man what his native soil is. You can see it all over him.

How soon after the man gets out of your office do you tear up his card and throw it into the wastebasket?

A man has been imprisoned in Paris for making his donkey helplessly drunk in the streets, says an exchange. When a man makes himself drunk, the donkey frequently avoids arrest.

No wise young woman will marry a man whose mother made the best bread in the universe. Pick out the son of a woman who bought hers at the bakery.

A Minnesota girl hugged her fellow so hard, he died," says an exchange. Well, wasn't it worth it?

What is one woman's palace is another's bird cage.

Courage is an element of character rather than of size.

Does the ordinance against expectorating on sidewalks include cat spitting?

A poet tells us to "crown hope with a royal diadem." Do you do it by putting salt on its tail?

"That's one on me!" gasped the ducky as the kicking mule left the imprint of a mule-shoe on his ham.

The evolutions of a man's brain resemble the meat of an English walnut—and that's why we say a man's "nutty." (Patent applied for.)

A married man may be a freethinker if he likes, but if he knows when he is well off, he will say little about what he freely thinks!

It is more blessed to give than to receive. That is why the kid in our alley licked the newsboy around the corner. He had to give—or take.

"Next summer," said Uncle By, dryly, "I'd like a job taming wild flowers."

No, Curly Locks, a dyed mustache is not necessarily owned by a "dead one."

Caution to Automobilists. Men who think they have an elephant on their hands should remember that an elephant when matured weighs 7,000 pounds.

Definition.

Love is what ails a man before he is married.

THE SCHOOLHOUSES

WHAT THEY MEAN TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY.

AND HOW THEY ARE BUILT

It is the Money That Stays at Home Which Makes Good Ones Possible —A Simple System That Works.

Your schoolhouses. Those of the town and those of the country districts. You know what they mean to you and to your children.

They represent the difference between ignorance and enlightenment. They mean to your children the difference between signing their names with a mark or in writing. They represent the difference between the civilization of the twentieth century, as this country knows it, and the barbarism of benighted Asia or Africa.

You want the schoolhouse, do you not?

You would willingly make sacrifices to keep it, would you not?

You glory in the free educational system of this country, do you not?

But, Mr. Citizen, did you ever sit down and consider carefully what it is that makes possible the schoolhouses of this country; the schoolhouses that stand as beacon lights on the tops of a thousand hills; the schoolhouses that carry cheer and enlightenment to the hearthstones of the homes of a thousand valleys?

It is the taxes that you, and your neighbor, and your neighbor's neighbor pay into the school fund year after year, is it not?

And why do you pay it? Because you own property—real estate, bonds and mortgages—and because that property is valuable.

What makes your real estate valuable?

It is the prosperity of the community. As the community grows and prospers the value of your property increases. As your property increases in value and you write your wealth in thousands instead of hundreds, the amount you pay into the school fund increases. When the school fund increases the old building gives place to a new and more modern structure, in which your children and your neighbor's children secure their instruction. And, again, the erection of the new building but adds more to the value of your property.

It is an endless chain system that builds villages out of cross roads, and cities out of villages.

Who are you, Mr. Citizen, and who is your neighbor and your neighbor's neighbor, whose contributions to the school fund make the schoolhouses possible? You, and your neighbor, and your neighbor's neighbor, are the farmers, the merchants, the doctors, the blacksmiths. You are each and every man who go to make up the community in which you live, and it is only when you work collectively that you accomplish results—that you build up new schoolhouses.

And how shall you work collectively?

By a simple system of boosting one another. You, we will say, have oats to sell—your neighbor buys them of you. He, you will say, has dry goods to sell—you buy them of him. It is this system of mutual help that makes the town grow into the city, that increases the price of real estate in the town and in the community surrounding it, that builds new schoolhouses.

The dollar that is unnecessarily sent away from home never bought so much as a nail for a schoolhouse, never put a shingle on its roof.

But the dollars that are unnecessarily sent away from home send back to the community which they left only ruin. It is these dollars that prevent the replacing of the leaking roof, the broken door hinge or the worn out desk.

It is the dollars that are unnecessarily sent away from home by you, and your neighbor, and your neighbor's neighbor that decrease the value of your, and your neighbor's, and your neighbor's neighbor's real estate. That makes the school fund grow less year after year. That forces the discharge of the competent teacher for a less competent one. That reduces the standing of your schools in the educational system of the country.

Work it backwards, send your money for the things you need away from home instead of spending it at home, and the system that builds villages out of cross roads, and cities out of villages, that increases the value of your real estate and permits you to write your wealth in four figures where previously three figures were enough, and you will make of the thriving little city but a village, and of the village but a cross road.

Do you not believe, Mr. Citizen, and do you think your neighbor and your neighbor's neighbor should believe, that it pays best to keep the dollars in the home community? Keep the system moving forwards, help to make a city of your village. Boost your town's interests and you boost your own.

Buttermilk Cocktail.

Throat parched? Irrigate it with a buttermilk cocktail.

This is a new brand of dampness which was devised at the University of Chicago. The buttermilk cocktail is constructed according to the following recipe: Take a tall, thin glass, drop in a chunk of ice; insert a long slice of cucumber, then fill with buttermilk. That's all!

Do You Feel Chilly, Then Feverish and Ache all Over?

Feel Worn-out, Blue and Tired? Have You a Fresh Cold, With Frequent Hacking Cough? Sensation of Soreness in the Chest or Back?

Don't let your case run into bronchitis, or some other obstinate and dangerous malady. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of native medicinal roots that will allay a cough (iron it out, as it were), restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living, because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of that life-giving quality—rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuralgia are only the indication that the nerves are not fed on invigorating blood. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is nature's own restorer. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need.

This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures troubles of the stomach and at the same time the blood-vessels are given such a toning up as to throw off a cold. One very good reason why it restores the health of run-down, pale and emaciated people is because it first throws out the poisons through the liver and kidneys. It then begins its reconstructive work in building up flesh and making good, rich, red blood.

"I have been a sufferer from indigestion for some thirty years, at times," writes Mr. S. W. Mullenax, of Greenville, W. Va., "and have used medicine from several of our best physicians, which gave me only a little temporary relief. They said I could never be cured. Last winter I was stricken with the worst spell that I ever had. I suffered with such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I could neither work nor sleep, and my weight went down from one hundred and ninety-five pounds to one hundred and sixty pounds in about two months' time. I then concluded that I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time the first bottle was gone, I felt some relief from my severe suffering so continued until I had used four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I am truly thankful for the great benefit which I have received from your medicine, and can cordially recommend it to others."

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its ingredients but also as the only medicine for stomach, liver and blood disorders, which absolutely contains PURELY VEGETABLE AND PERFECTLY HARMLESS INGREDIENTS, WITH NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the best all-nerve tonic, and the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "Golden Medical Discovery" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as Nature's cure for many chronic diseases and its ingredients are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root, and chemically pure glycerine.

Remember, these are the first first put up by old Dr. R. V. Kellogg, over 40 years ago, and although much imitated, have never been equaled. Made of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American plants and roots, therefore purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One little Pellet for a stomachic, or stomach and bowel regulator, three tiny granules for a cathartic.
